Test-3

Sectional Test:

Polity, Governance and
Current Affairs (March 2025)

1. (c)

- Statement 1 is correct: Article 124(3)(c) of the Indian Constitution allows the President to appoint as a Judge of the Supreme Court a person who, in the opinion of the President, is a “distinguished jurist,” even if they have never served as a High Court judge or practiced as an advocate.
- Statement 2 is correct: Till now, Article 124(3)(c) remains unutilised and no person has ever been appointed to the Supreme Court under the “distinguished jurist” category. All appointments so far have been from among High Court judges or advocates.
- Additional information:
  - ♦ A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a Judge of the Supreme Court unless he is a citizen of India and
    - has been for at least five years a Judge of a High Court or of two or more such Courts in succession; or
    - has been for at least ten years an advocate of a High Court or of two or more such Courts in succession; or
    - is, in the opinion of the President, a distinguished jurist.
  - ♦ A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a Judge of a High Court unless he is a citizen of India and—
    - has for at least ten years held a judicial office in the territory of India; or
    - has for at least ten years been an advocate of a High Court or of two or more such Courts in succession

Note: Unlike the Supreme Court, the Constitution does not provide for the appointment of a ‘distinguished jurist’ as a judge of a High Court.

2. (c)

- Option (c) is the correct answer: Article 130 mentions that the seat of the Supreme Court shall be in Delhi. However, if the Supreme Court is to hold its sitting at any place other than Delhi, it shall be decided by the Chief Justice of India, with the approval of the President.
- Additional information:
  - ♦ Presently, there are no regional benches of the Supreme Court in the States

3. (c)

- Article 130 of the Constitution provides for Original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Original jurisdiction means cases that can be directly considered by the Supreme Court without going to the lower courts before that.
- Statement 2 is correct:
  - ♦ According to Article 130, SC has original jurisdiction in any dispute—
    - between the Government of India and one or more States; or
    - between the Government of India and any State or States on one side and one or more other States on the other; or
    - between two or more States, if and in so far as the dispute involves any question (whether of law or fact) on which the existence or extent of a legal right depends:
  - ♦ Therefore, Inter-state border disputes fall under the Supreme Court’s exclusive original jurisdiction and can be directly taken up by the SC.

- Statement 4 is correct: Article 32 of the Constitution gives an original jurisdiction (but not exclusive jurisdiction) to the Supreme Court for enforcement of Fundamental Rights. A case involving violation of Fundamental Rights, including of a state government employee, can be directly filed in the Supreme Court under Article 32.
- Statements 1 and 3 are not correct: Following matters are excluded from the original jurisdiction of SC:
  - ♦ Inter-state water disputes (They are adjudicated under a separate mechanism provided in the Inter-State Water Disputes Act, 1956)
  - ♦ Matters referred to the Finance Commission
  - ♦ Dispute arising out of any pre-Constitution treaty, agreement, covenant, engagement, sanad or other similar instrument.
  - ♦ Ordinary dispute of Commercial nature between the Centre and the states

4. (c)

- Statement 1 is correct: During a National Emergency, Parliament can legislate on subjects in the State List under Article 250. Such laws made by the Parliament on state list subject become inoperative after expiry of six months after the National emergency has ceased to exist.
- Statement 2 is correct: During the President's Rule in a State (Article 356), Parliament can make laws for that State on any matter in the State List. These laws continue to be in force even after the President's Rule is revoked, unless repealed or altered by the State Legislature.
- Additional information:
  - ♦ During a National emergency, the State legislature can continue to make laws. But in case of conflict between Central and State law, Central law will prevail.

- ♦ During the President's rule, the state legislative assembly is either suspended or dissolved during the President's rule, so it can not make any law during this period.

5. (a)

- Statement 1 is correct: Under Article 356, if the Governor reports to the President that the government of a State cannot be carried on according to constitutional provisions, the President is not bound to act immediately. He may seek clarifications, additional information, or even reject the report before making a decision. The Governor's report is only a basis, not a binding command.
- Statement 2 is not correct: Article 356 states that the President can impose President's Rule if they are "satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the government of the State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution." This satisfaction can be based either on a report from the Governor or "otherwise." The phrase "otherwise" implies that the President can act without a formal report from the Governor. Therefore, imposition of President's Rule without a Governor's report is not unconstitutional.
- Additional information:
  - ♦ A proclamation imposing President's Rule must be approved by both Houses of Parliament within two months of its issuance.
  - ♦ If the Lok Sabha is dissolved at the time of issuance, or gets dissolved before the two-month approval period ends, then:
    - The proclamation remains valid until 30 days after the first sitting of the newly reconstituted Lok Sabha.
    - However, during this time, it is necessary that the Rajya Sabha approves the proclamation.

6. (c)

- Statement 1 is correct: Article 310 states that every person who is a member of a defence service or of a civil service of the Union or of an all-India service, holds office during the pleasure of the President. Also, every person who is a member of a civil service of a State or holds any civil post under a State holds office during the pleasure of the Governor of the State.
- Statement 2 is correct: Article 311 contains provisions regarding dismissal from service of the persons mentioned under Article 310. It states that no person who is a member of a civil service of the Union or an all India service or a civil service of a State or holds a civil post under the Union or a State shall be dismissed or removed by an authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed.

7. (c)

- Option (c) is the correct answer: If the investigating agency fails to file a chargesheet within the prescribed time limit (60 days for most offences and 90 days for serious offences), the accused becomes entitled to “default bail”. In this case, bail is granted because of the default of the investigating agency in not completing the investigation within the specified time, and it is also referred to as ‘compulsive bail’ or ‘statutory bail’.
- Additional information:
  - ♦ Anticipatory Bail: If a person suspects that he may be arrested for a non-bailable offence, he may petition for anticipatory bail.
  - ♦ Interim bail: It is granted to an accused before the hearing for regular or anticipatory bail.

8. (a)

- Statement 1 is correct: Article 243ZD(1) of the Constitution unequivocally states that “There shall be constituted in every State at the district level a District Planning Committee” to consolidate plans prepared by Panchayats and Municipalities and to draft a development plan for the district. However, this does not mean all members are elected.

- Statement 2 is not correct: Article 243ZD provides that the State Legislature may decide by law the composition of the District Planning Committee and the manner in which seats are filled. However, it explicitly requires that not less than four-fifths of the members must be elected by, and from amongst, the elected members of Panchayats and Municipalities at the district level, in proportion to the rural-urban population. This means that while a majority are elected by the elected members of the Panchayats and of the Municipalities at the district level, upto one-fifth of the seats are filled as per state law.

9. (a)

- About Lok Adalats: It is a forum where the cases (or disputes) which are pending in a court or which are at pre-litigation stage (not yet brought before a court) are compromised or settled in an amicable manner. Thus, Statement 1 is correct.
- Statement 2 is not correct: Lok Adalats can deal with matters such as Matrimonial/Family Disputes, Criminal (Compoundable Offences) cases, Land Acquisition cases, Labour disputes, etc. But, the Lok Adalat do not have jurisdiction in respect of any case or matter relating to an offence which is not compoundable under any law.
- Statement 3 is not correct: An award of a Lok Adalat shall be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court or an order of any other court. Every award made by a Lok Adalat shall be final and binding on all the parties to the dispute. No appeal shall lie to any court against the award of the Lok Adalat.

State Election Commission, and not ECI.

10. (c)

- Option (c) is the correct answer: Article 148 states that the Comptroller and Auditor-General shall not be eligible for further office either under the Government of India or under the Government of any State after he has ceased to hold his office.
- Option (a) is not correct: There is no provision in the Constitution which debars Election Commissioner from further appointment by the government.
- Option (b) is not correct: According to Article 319 of the Constitution, the Chairman of a State Public Service Commission shall be eligible for appointment as the Chairman or any other member of the Union Public Service Commission or as the Chairman of any other State Public Service Commission, but not for any other employment either under the Government of India or under the Government of a State.
  - ◆ However, note that the Chairman of the Union Public Service Commission shall be ineligible for further employment either under the Government of India or under the Government of a State;
- Option (d) is not correct: There is no provision in the Constitution which debars the Attorney General of India from further appointment by the government.

11. (d)

- 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 are correct: According to Article 324 of the Constitution, the Election commission of India (ECI) is vested with the authority to conduct elections to the offices of President, Vice-President, both Houses of Parliament and both Houses of State legislatures.
- Additional information:
  - ◆ Elections of Local bodies (Panchayats and Municipalities) are conducted by

12. (a)

- Statement 1 is not correct: Article 31B provides that laws placed under the Ninth Schedule are protected from challenge on the ground of violating Fundamental Rights. However, in I.R. Coelho v. State of Tamil Nadu (2007), the Supreme Court held that there is no blanket immunity for such laws. Any law inserted into the Ninth Schedule after 24th April 1973 (the date of the Kesavananda Bharati judgment) is open to judicial review if it violates Fundamental Rights under Articles 14, 15, 19, and 21 or damages the basic structure of the Constitution. Hence, immunity is not absolute.
- Statement 2 is correct: A law can be placed in the Ninth Schedule only by a constitutional amendment under Article 368. Ordinary legislation alone cannot insert a law into the Ninth Schedule.

13. (a)

- About procedure of removal of SC judges: Article 124 mentions that a Judge of the Supreme Court shall be removed from his office by an order of the President. Such order needs to be passed after an address by each House of Parliament. It requires the support of a majority of the total membership of that House and of a majority of not less than two-third of the members of the House present and voting. Notably, it has to be presented to the President in the same session for such removal. The grounds for the removal include proved misbehavior or incapacity.
- Article 124 also states that Parliament may by law regulate the procedure for the presentation of an address and for the investigation and proof of the misbehavior or incapacity of a Judge. In exercise of this power, Parliament has enacted the Judges Enquiry Act (1968).

- The Judges Enquiry Act (1968) regulates the procedure relating to the removal of a judge of the Supreme Court. It states the following process:
  - ◆ A removal motion signed by 100 members (in the case of Lok Sabha) or 50 members (in the case of Rajya Sabha) is to be given to the Speaker/ Chairman. Thus, Statement 1 is correct but Statement 2 is not correct.
  - ◆ The Speaker/Chairman may admit the motion or refuse to admit it.
  - ◆ If it is admitted, then the Speaker/Chairman is to constitute a three-member committee to investigate the charges.
  - ◆ The committee should consist of (a) the chief justice or a judge of the Supreme Court, (b) a chief justice of a high court, and (c) a distinguished jurist. Thus, Statement 3 is not correct.
  - ◆ If the committee finds the judge to be guilty of misbehaviour or suffering from an incapacity, the House can take up the consideration of the motion.
  - ◆ After the motion is passed by each House of Parliament by special majority, an address is presented to the president for removal of the judge.
  - ◆ Finally, the president passes an order removing the judge.

14. (d)

- About 74th Amendment Act, 1992: It gave constitutional status to the municipalities and added a new Part IX-A (Articles 243-P to 243-ZG) to the Constitution. It aims to revitalise and strengthen the urban governments so that they function effectively as units of local government.

- Statement 1 is not correct: The provisions of Part IX-A are applicable to Union Territories. However, the President has the authority to apply them with certain exceptions or modifications as specified.
- Statement 2 is not correct: Part IX-A is not applicable to the scheduled areas and tribal areas under Schedule V and VI of the Constitution. However, the Parliament may extend the provisions of this part to the scheduled areas and tribal areas subject to such exceptions and modifications as it may specify.

- Statement 3 is not correct: The subject “co-operative societies” is included in the State List ( Entry 32 ) of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution.

  - ◆ The Minister in-charge of Finance or Taxation or any other
  - ◆ Minister nominated by each state government

- ◆ The members of the Council from the states have to choose one amongst themselves to be the Vice-Chairperson of the Council. They can also decide his term.

- Statement 3 is not correct: The decisions of the Council are taken at its meetings. One-half of the total number of members of the Council is the quorum for conducting a meeting. Every decision of the Council is to be taken by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the weighted votes of the members present and voting at the meeting.

17. (c)

- Option (c) is correct: Green grabbing refers to the appropriation of land and resources for environmental ends—such as conservation projects, carbon offset schemes, or biofuel cultivation—often at the cost of local communities and their livelihoods. The ethical concern lies in prioritizing environmental goals while ignoring social justice, equity, and indigenous rights

18. (a)

- Danube River: Originates in Germany and flows through multiple Central and Eastern European countries before draining into the Black Sea via Romania and Ukraine.
- Dniester River: Flows through Ukraine and Moldova and empties into the Black Sea near the Ukrainian city of Odesa.
- Volga River: Volga is the longest river in Europe and the principal waterway of western Russia and the historic cradle of the Russian state. Rising in the Valdai Hills northwest of Moscow, the Volga discharges into the Caspian Sea

20. (a)

- About Gram Nyayalayas: They are courts established at the grass roots level for the purposes of providing access to justice to the citizens at their doorsteps. They are in line with the provisions of Article 39A of the Constitution.
- Statement 1 is correct: As per the Gram Nyayalayas Act, 2008, Gram Nyayalayas are established at the intermediate

  - ♦ In Civil cases, appeal lies in the District Court.
- Hence, the judgments of Gram Nyayalayas are not final, and appeals are permitted.

21. (b)

- Statement 1 is not correct: The introduction of PIL in India became possible through the relaxation of the traditional rule of locus standi. Under this conventional rule, only the person whose rights were directly infringed could approach the court for remedies. PIL, however, is an exception to this principle. It allows any public-spirited individual or social organisation to seek judicial remedies on behalf of persons or groups who, owing to poverty, ignorance, or social and economic disadvantage, are unable to approach the court themselves. Thus, in a PIL, any member of the public having 'sufficient interest' may move the court to enforce the rights of others and to address common grievances.
- Statement 2 is correct: the letters or petitions falling under the following categories alone will ordinarily be entertained as PIL:
  - ♦ Bonded labour matters
  - ♦ Neglected children
  - ♦ Non-payment of minimum wages to workers and exploitation of casual workers and complaints of violation of Labour Laws (except in individual cases)

- ♦ Petitions from jails complaining of harassment, for premature release and seeking release after having completed 14 years in jail, death in jail, transfer, release on personal bond, speedy trial as a fundamental right
- ♦ Petitions against police for refusing to register a case, harassment by police and death in police custody
- ♦ Petitions against atrocities on women, in particular harassment of bride, brideburning, rape, murder, kidnapping, etc.
- Thus, a PIL may be filed not only for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights but also for ordinary legal rights.
- Statement 3 is not correct: A PIL can be filed in both, Supreme Court as well as High Courts.

22. (b)

Section 6 of The DSPE Act (“Consent of State Government to exercise of powers and jurisdiction”) says: “Nothing contained in section 5 (titled “Extension of powers and jurisdiction of special police establishment to other areas”) shall be deemed to enable any member of the Delhi Special Police Establishment to exercise powers and jurisdiction in any area in a State, not being a Union territory or railway area, without the consent of the Government of that State.”

- ◆ CBI's position is in this respect different from that of the National Investigation Agency (NIA), which is governed by The NIA Act, 2008, and has jurisdiction across the country.

- General consent of CBI: The consent of the state government to CBI can be either case-specific or general. General consent is normally given by states to help the CBI in seamless investigation of cases of corruption against central government employees in their states. This is consent by default, in the absence of which the CBI would have to apply to the state government in every case, and before taking even small actions.
- Note: Statement I, in general, is correct as explained above. However, please note that in a recent decision, the Supreme Court has held that CBI does not require the sanction of a state government to register a case under a Central legislation like the Prevention of Corruption Act against a Central government employee working within the territory of the state concerned

But the Constitution does not prescribe any time limit for the Speaker to decide on disqualification petitions of legislators under the Tenth Schedule.
- Statement 2 is correct: In Kihoto Hollohan vs. Zachillhu (1992), the Supreme Court held that the decision of the Speaker regarding disqualification is subject to judicial review.

69. (d)

- Statement 1 is not correct: Arbitration results in an arbitral award, which is legally binding and enforceable under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Mediation, on the other hand, is a voluntary process, and any settlement

- Statement 2 is not correct: In India, Arbitration and Conciliation are governed by a comprehensive statutory framework under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. Additionally, The Mediation Act, 2023, has been recently enacted by the government which aims to promote and facilitate mediation as a primary means of dispute resolution, especially for commercial disputes. Thus both of them have a statutory backing.

Barani was privileged to meet him while he was in his youth. He praises that his compositions are in such a large number that it could form a library of its own. - Statement 3 is correct: Amir Khusrau's five masnavis (poetical works) are important sources of history. His book Khazain-ul Futuh provides crucial information on Alauddin Khalji's reign.

74. (d)

- Statement 1 is not correct: A comprehensive central legislation was enacted in 1972 called the Wildlife (Protection) Act for providing special legal protection to our wildlife and to the endangered species of fauna in particular. The Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972 was subsequently amended during 1991 and last during 2002. As per the amendment of the Act in 2002, a provision was incorporated for the constitution of the National Board for Wildlife, replacing the Indian Board for Wildlife.
- Statement 2 is not correct: The National Board for Wildlife has 47 members with the Prime Minister in the Chair. The Minister in charge of the Ministry of Environment & Forests in the Central Government is the Vice-Chairperson.

75. (c)

- Statement 1 is not correct: The park is situated near Shivpuri town and is a part of the upper Vindhyan hills. The Park was the hunting ground of Mughal emperors and Maharaja of Gwalior. It got the status of a National Park in 1958.

- Statement 2 is correct: Article 145(1) authorizes the Supreme Court, with the approval of the President, to make rules for regulating its practice and procedure.

78. (a)

- About the judicial system in India: The Indian Constitution establishes a judicial system that is integrated as well as independent. In India, an "integrated judicial system" means that the Supreme Court is the apex court, with all other courts, from the High Courts to the lower courts, forming a unified structure where the decisions of higher courts are binding on lower courts.
- Option (a): Separation of the judiciary from the executive (as provided under Article 50 of the Constitution) and higher judiciary functioning independently, free from the control of the executive is an implication of an independent judicial system, not integrated judicial system.
- Option (b): This is a direct implication of an integrated judiciary. The hierarchical structure ensures that the judgments of higher courts (like the Supreme Court and High Courts) are authoritative and legally binding on all lower courts within their jurisdiction.

- Option (c): A single system of courts to enforce both the central laws as well as the state laws is a feature of an integrated judicial system. Thus, High Courts adjudicating disputes pertaining to Union laws is an implication of having an integrated judiciary.
- Option (d): Article 132 of the Indian Constitution provides for the provision of an appeal to the Supreme Court from any judgment, decree or final order of a High Court in a civil, criminal or other proceeding. This is also an implication of having an integrated judiciary.

- Statement 1 is not correct: The power of High Courts to issue writs is derived from Article 226 of the Constitution of India, which is part of Part VI (The States). This power is broader than that of the Supreme Court under Article 32. While the Supreme Court's writ jurisdiction under Article 32 is limited to the enforcement of Fundamental Rights (Part III), a High Court can issue writs for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights as well as for "any other purpose." This phrase means a High Court can also issue writs to enforce a legal right that isn't a Fundamental Right.
- Statement 2 is not correct: High Courts have the power to issue all five types of writs: habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and quo warranto.

However, later the Representation of the People Act, 1951 was amended to introduce the system of open ballot for the elections of members of Rajya Sabha. This was done to curb cross-voting and to wipe out the role of money power during Rajya Sabha elections. Under the open ballot system, an elector belonging to a political party has to show the ballot paper after marking his vote to a nominated agent of that political party.

Thus, the sun's propagation can be used to calculate the dates and calendrical events, and change of season, etc by carefully observing the movement of the sun in relation with Menhirs. They represent expansive megalithic astronomical observatory sites. Most Menhirs are found in Peninsular India, particularly in Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu etc.

- Statement 1 is not correct: The Judges of a High Court are appointed by the President in consultation with the Chief Justice of India and the Governor of the state concerned. The Chief Justice of the concerned High Court is also consulted for the appointment of a judge other than the Chief Justice. While the governor is consulted, the appointment is made by the President, not the Governor. The removal process, however, is similar to that of a Supreme Court Judge. A High Court Judge can be removed by the President on the grounds of "proved misbehaviour or incapacity" after a motion for removal has been passed by a special majority in both Houses of Parliament.
- Statement 2 is correct: The salaries of the Judges of a High Court are determined by Parliament. However, the salaries and allowances are charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the State, not the Consolidated Fund of India. However, the

  - ♦ After this period, as per Article 343(3), Parliament was empowered by law to continue the use of English for specific purposes, a power exercised by the Official Languages Act, 1963. This Act was crucial for the continued use of English, establishing Hindi and English as official languages
- Statement 2 is correct: Article 351 of the Constitution places a duty on the Union to “promote the spread of the Hindi language, to develop it so that it may serve as a medium of expression for all the elements of the composite culture of India.”

- Statement 1 is not correct: Article 124 of the Constitution of India places a bar on a retired Supreme Court judge from "pleading or acting in any court or before any authority in India." But there is no absolute bar on any further appointment under the Government of India after retirement.
- Statement 2 is not correct: The removal of a Supreme Court judge requires a special majority in both Houses of Parliament. The motion must be supported by a majority of the total membership of each House and a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of that House present and voting.
- Statement 3 is not correct: The Constitution does not fix the tenure of a Supreme Court judge. It only states the retirement age, which is 65 years.
